Noosaville State School P&C have chosen The Lucky Charm Newsagency at Noosa Civic in Noosaville to provide parents with the most economical and easiest method of obtaining your children’s stationery requirements. Parents have the option of using this method to ensure all their children’s stationery items are ready for the first day of school in 2017, you may also source the booklist items yourself if preferred. Not all students will need to order the complete list as you may have some items still in usable condition from previous years.

Important – Please read carefully
